ment will probably take place on December 14.

Smith Academy has several musical organizations, and all of them are expected to participate. Selections by the Academy Glee Club Mandelin Club and the boys choir are included in the programme. Among the alumni who will take a prominent part in the entertainment are Edgar Lackland, leader of the Yale Glee Club in 1896; Oliver Richards, leader of the Harvard Mandelin Club two years ago; Herbert Morgan, for four years a member of the Yale Mandelin Club, and George W. Sinmons, leader of the Yale Glee Club last year.

A meeting was held yesterday at Mr. Lackland's office, where the Committee on Arrangements, consisting of Messrs. Lloyd Wells, Hugh Marshall and Alexander Skinker of the class of 1991, and Messrs Burdick, Hill and Boynton, perfected the arrangements for the affair.

Sixty Costumes and Twenty Hats Necessary for Her Plays.

Paris, Nov. 16 — (Copyright, 1909, by W. R. Hearst.)—Sarah Bernhardt and M. Coquelin will sail Monday on the French liner Lor-raine for New York. Mme. Bernhardt said to The Republic correspondent: "I am delighted at the pros-pect of my American tour. I shall play L'Algion." 'Hamlet,' 'La Tosca.' Camille.' 'Frou Frou' and Roxanne in Carano de Bergerac,' I am taking along sixty per-sons.

Bergerac.' I am taking along sixty persons.

"My baggage consists of fifty trunks for myself. I can't do with less. I need sixty costumes, 129 pairs of shoes and twenty hats. I hope for a delightful season, because I am fond of America."

M. Coquelin said: "I am no stranger in America. This is to be my third trip. I have collected all the traditions of 'Hamiet,' and will play the grave-digger to Mms. Bernhardt's Hamlet I don't like the part of Polonius. Sarah Bernhardt will make an admirable Roxanne to my Cyrano. I will play Flambeau to her L'Alglon and Baron Scarpia to her La Tosca. We hope to give a benefit performance for the Galveston sufferers in New York.

He warned his hearers that if the criffeism was persisted to the time might come when his stience would be broken and the onus laid beavity and pub-lish on the right shoulders, though he dep-recated having recourse to that.

Attack on Army Hospitals.

A curious feature connected with the war was Mrs. Richard Chamberiam's vigorous attack on the army hospitals before the Hospital Commission hast week. The spectace of this semewhat extraordinary sisterin-law of the Colonial Secretary sitting two hours before the grave body and teaching a man like Judge Rohmer his business created no little sensation. But for the woman who took out to South Africa 509 inct-water bass and reorganized the charities, and who has the reputation of being the only individual ever known to affect the judgment of the Chamberiain brothers, the task was comparatively light.
